

AGON PICTURES

IMAGINATION CREATES REALITY

SUMMARY

The term AGON originates from Greek Mythology.

AGON was widely understood more as a spirit than a god. It was widely accepted to be related both to Zelos (the god of rivalry) and Nike (the goddess of Victory). More generally, AGON was the alter warriors approached and prayed at to be blessed with the spirit of competition, so they would be led to victory.

In every story, there is a protAGONist and an antAGONist. Both competing for which belief is more powerful.

Simply put, AGON PICTURES is where stories come to be blessed prior to entering the marketplace.

INTRODUCTION

WHO:

AGON PICTURES, LLC

WHAT:

Independent Film Production Studio.

As a reference, AGON is a mixture of SYNCOPIY & A24.

WHAT'S DIFFERENT:

AGON curates' high concept and stylized original visual stories intended for a global audience to experience in cinemas. Specificity and detail are at the nucleus of the cerebral stories we tell.

While we focus mainly on stories intended for the cinema, we do have our sights set on a few TV projects intended for streaming networks.

Original and existing IP.

STORIES:

MIAMI STEVE: (TV)

After bottoming out again financially, an optimistic filmmaker is forced to move back home with a cancer-stricken parent during economic turmoil.

Overwhelmed, he seeks solace in an alternative form of therapy which allows him a peek into his future. When remnants of these visions begin to show up in present day, we discover that not only his path predetermined, but everything he's experienced in his life and career has been preparing him for what he's about to encounter.

FOODTOPIA: (TV)

FOODTOPIA: EAT, LEARN, LOVE

FOODTOPIA, is a new docuseries that takes us on a journey with and through food. Host Stephan 'Miami Steve' DeKemper and Justin Bizzarro share their personal experiences with us as they explore and eat from around the world and how it connects us all.

THE EXCHANGE: (FILM)

On the verge of multiple life sentences and never getting to see his son, a drug trafficker with Cartel ties has no choice but to cooperate with a newly formed task force; but when he turns out to be a better cop than criminal, he uncovers just how deep the Cartel's reach truly goes.

TRANSFERENCE: (FILM)

Based on a true story: When a woman badly in need of a heart transplant finally finds a donor, her life has been completely transformed for the better.

But things take a turn when she begins to have extremely vivid and violent nightmares about a young girl being murdered. Deciding to track down the donor's family, she uncovers the girl in her dreams is the daughter of the donor family and must use the dreams to help solve the murder.

SPIRITUAL WICKEDNESS IN HIGH PLACES: (FILM)

An innocent teenage girl is betrayed by her church, raped and sold into the sex trade. Decades later, she returns to seek revenge.

FOUNDER

STEPHAN DEKEMPER

IMDB

The native Hoosier demonstrated a love and talent for the arts at an early age. His love for filmmaking continued to grow and solidify as he attended Columbia College Hollywood in Tarzana, California where he earned his BFA in Filmmaking with an emphasis in Cinematography.

After graduating in 2015, Stephan moved to Atlanta to tackle the south-east region and decided to take up acting to add to his dynamic range of skills, wanting to be a unique blend of Actor/Cinematographer which allows him to leverage over a decade of experience behind the camera, in front. Stephan has worked on such titles as Coming 2 America, Halt & Catch Fire, The Hate U Give, and 15:17 to Paris. His love for stimulating visuals is demonstrated by his personal drive and commitment to excellence.

In 2020, Stephan experienced a life changing event that was the catalyst of him studying how the mind works, in 2021, Stephan founded AGON PICTURES after creating the groundbreaking series 'Miami Steve' which pushes the boundaries of entertainment with its new approach to 4th wall storytelling.